Direct Debits

Members are urged to use the direct debit method: the member signs a direct debit form giving the Association authority to claim the subscriptions direct from the member's bank account; the form is returned to the Membership Department and sent to the member's bank after recording the details. Subscriptions are claimed at the beginning of the month due.

If you wish to set up a direct debit please return the attached form with your application. Alternatively you can download a form at www.magistrates-association.org.uk/dox/dd-form.pdf

If you have any queries please contact the membership department on 020 7388 5558

Cheque or Postal Order

Cheques should be made payable to "The Magistrates Association" and be sent to: 28 Fitzroy Square, London, W1T 6DD.

If renewing your subscription, please make sure your membership number is written on the reverse of the cheque.

Internet/Telephone Banking Transfers

You can make bank transfers via online or telephone banking but you must make sure your membership number is given as a reference for the transaction or we will be unable to correctly credit your payment to your record. For further details of this method of payment please contact the membership department on 020 7388 5558.
